Martin-Baker Continues Agreement with Sikorsky

Martin-Baker is pleased to announce its continued agreement with Sikorsky, a Lockheed Martin company, for the supply of troop seating on Black Hawk helicopters. Per the latest multi-year contract, the helicopters with Martin-Baker’s seats are delivered to the U.S. Army, as well as numerous international Black Hawk customers, for use in a wide range of missions, including troop transport, search and rescue, medical evacuation, disaster relief, aerial firefighting, and border patrol. Martin-Baker’s legacy of military seats has been qualified on the Black Hawk since 2005, and to date has delivered over 15,000 troop, gunner, and operator seats.

—Please see https://martin-baker.com/news_events_post/martin-baker-continue-to-supply-sikorskys-black-hawk-troop-seats/ to read more.

Corporate News Bites

MedAire: All Nippon Airways and MedAire are working together to identify, assess, and understand risks to flights both in the air and on the ground. The Star Alliance member said the MedAire partnership will ensure it makes informed decisions that will keep its operations running smoothly and securely. To read more about this, please visit http://www.orientaviation.com/articles/9953/all-nippon-airways-partners-with-medaire-to-enhance-security-intelligence.

Crossword Solution

Reminder to Members: A year ago, the journal became electronic only as the member benefit. Members can purchase a print subscription for $100/year.